2011 Waltham murders

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

A triple homicide was committed in Waltham, Massachusetts, on the evening of September 11, 2011.

^[1] Brendan Mess, Erik Weissman, and Raphael Teken were murdered in Mess's apartment. All had their throats slit from ear to ear, with such great force that they were nearly decapitated. Thousands of dollars of marijuana and money were left covering their mutilated bodies, and $5,000 was left at the scene. The local district attorney said that it appeared that the killer and the victims knew each other, and that the murders were not random.

Law enforcement authorities now suspect Tamerlan Tsarnaev, the deceased suspect in the 2013 Boston Marathon bombings, and his younger brother Dzhokhar, of being responsible for the triple homicide, as they claim forensic evidence connects them to the scene of the killings and their cell phone records placed them in the area.^[2] Tamerlan had previously described Mess as his best friend, though before Mess was murdered there had been animosity between Tamerlan and Mess over Mess's "lifestyle". After the bombings and subsequent revelations of Tamerlan's personal life, the Waltham murders case was reexamined in April 2013 with Tamerlan as a new suspect.^[1]

Victims

Three men, Brendan Mess (age 25), Erik Weissman (31), and Raphael Teken (37), were discovered murdered in the early afternoon on September 12, 2011. They were found in Mess's apartment at 12 Harding Avenue in Waltham, Massachusetts.^[3]

A#43
EE

All three victims were Jewish according to a source.^[4] Other sources have not reported a religion for Mess.^{[2][5][6]} Weissman was outspoken about his Jewish faith, and an active member of his synagogue. Teken had majored in history at predominantly Jewish Brandeis University; he was buried in Israel.^[5] Mess was described by Tamerlan Tsarnaev as his best friend.^{[7][5]} Mess, Weissman, and both Tsarnaev brothers had attended Cambridge Rindge and Latin School at various times.^[5] Mess received a bachelor's degree in professional writing from Champlain College in 2008.^[8]

The three men, who were described as being physically strong, were dragged to or killed in three different rooms.^[9] Mess was a well-known mixed martial arts fighter, and is listed as a martial arts instructor on his death certificate. Teken is listed as a personal trainer on his death certificate.^[1] Weissman was a bodybuilder.^[10]

In 2008, police pulled Weissman over for failing to yield and smelled marijuana smoke in his vehicle. He was charged with marijuana possession and intent to distribute. Teken lived in Waltham, where certain neighbors said they believed he was a drug dealer, saying he rarely left the house and had a steady stream of visitors. In 2010, Mess and another man were arrested on charges that they assaulted several people at a store.^[8]

2011 investigation

Autopsies revealed that the men had been brutally murdered. Their heads had been pulled back, and their throats had been slit from ear-to-ear with either an ice pick or knife with such great force that they were nearly decapitated.^[11] Their mutilated bodies had been left covered with thousands of dollars worth of marijuana (seven pounds of marijuana; in what investigators described as a symbolic gesture) and thousands of dollars of money, in three different rooms.^[12] Police said $5,000 was left at the scene, which suggested that robbery was not the motive.^[13]

No motive was discovered, though the police said that the murders were not random.^[5] Two unidentified men had been seen at the apartment before the murders.^[14] Middlesex District Attorney Gerry Leone said that it appeared that two unknown perpetrators and the victims knew each other, based on evidence that the police had obtained.^[13] It was believed that there was more than one person at the scene other than the victims based on "many factors," and that the victims let the killers into their apartment, and there was no evidence of forced entry.^[15] Neighbors whose windows were open did not hear any signs of trouble.^[15]

A Waltham police investigator said the murders were:

the worst bloodbath I have ever seen in a long law enforcement career. There was no forced entry, it was clear that the victims had let the killer in. And their throats were slashed right out of an al Qaeda training video. The drugs and money on the bodies was very strange.^[3]

2013 investigation developments

New investigation details

The Boston Globe first made the connection to the murders.^[5]

On April 22, 2013, the Middlesex County District Attorney's Office stated that it was actively investigating the possible connection of Boston Marathon bombings suspect Tamerlan Tsarnaev to the murders.^[16] ABC reported that authorities believe Tsarnaev may have been responsible for the triple homicide.^[2] The Federal Bureau of Investigation joined the investigation, and expects to conduct a lengthy investigation to examine whether the Tsarnaev brothers were involved in the murders.^[17]

Investigators on the Boston Marathon bombings case have said Tamerlan Tsarnaev visited Dagestan and neighboring Chechnya for six months following the date of the Waltham murders.^[1] At the time of the killings, Tsarnaev, then 24, was beginning to be influenced by radical Islam and becoming increasingly strict in his interpretation of Islam.^[18] They are seeking to determine whether the killings may have been timed to take place on the tenth anniversary of the 9/11 attacks.^[19]

After the Marathon bombing, a Planet Aid driver found discarded fireworks in the Planet Aid donation bin in the parking lot of a restaurant, Gerry's Italian Kitchen, that has been connected in other ways to the Waltham murders case and to the Tsarnaev brothers.^[15] Police investigators told ABC News that "the gunpowder had been emptied from the fireworks and the shells discarded in a shopping bag inside the bin."^[15]

Tamerlan Tsarnaev connection to victims

Tamerlan Tsarnaev had formerly described murder victim Brendan Mess, who lived a few blocks from him in Cambridge and was a year younger than Tamerlan, as his best friend.^[20] Tsarnaev had been a regular visitor at Mess's apartment where the murders took place, and authorities believe that at times Mess crashed at Tsarnaev's apartment; at one point, they lived together as roommates.^[20] Mess also brought Tamerlan with him to social events and fight events.^[20] Investigators believe Tsarnaev was one of the last people to see Mess alive.^[21]

Both men were boxers, and they were sparring partners spent hours training and sparring together beginning in 2009.^[20] In 2011 Tamerlan had introduced Mess to John Allan, owner of Wai Kru Mixed Martial Arts in Allston, describing him as his "best friend".^[1]

Allan said:

After Mess died it really shocked me how unemotional [Tamerlan] was. He just kind of laughed and said, 'Can you believe it?' It was like he didn't care about this kid he grew up with.

Tamerlan Tsarnaev, who authorities believe may have been responsible for the triple homicide

EE

Tsarnaev stopped going to the martial arts center after Mess was murdered, and had not been back in years until March 2013 when he suddenly visited and acted rudely.^[16] The website BuzzFeed interviewed a friend of Mess named Ray, who also knew Tsarnaev and who was in the same social circle in Cambridge.^[22] Ray now believes that Tsarnaev could have played a role in the murders. He said:

Tam wasn't there at the memorial service, he wasn't at the funeral, he wasn't around at all... And he was really close with Brendan. That's why it's so weird when he said, 'I don't have any American friends.'^[5]

Ray continued: "He was somebody who was in contact with Brendan on a daily basis. Anybody like that you would think they would have been around."^[22] Ray did not have any further contact with Tsarnaev after the murders.^[23]

One of Mess's relatives also told investigators they thought it was odd that Tsarnaev had not attended his friend Mess's funeral. Nor was he at his memorial service.^[13] Two law enforcement sources said that the Mess relative also noted that there had been animosity between Tsarnaev and Mess, over Mess's "lifestyle".^[24]

Tsarnaev at the time viewed the 9/11 attacks as a CIA set-up, to foment war against Muslims.^[25]

On May 10, investigators in Massachusetts were reported to have developed what they called "mounting evidence" supported by "forensic hits" as some crime scene forensic evidence provided a match to the two Tsarnaev brothers, pointing to the possible involvement of both Tsarnaev brothers in the killings.^[15] Further definitive DNA testing must be completed before an indictment against the surviving brother can be considered, according to the officials.^[15] Their cell phone records also appeared to put the Tsarnaev brothers in the area of the murders on that date, according to the officials.^[15]

Man questioned and killed

On May 22, 2013, an FBI special agent from the Boston field office, two Massachusetts State Police troopers, and other law enforcement officers interviewed Ibragim Todashev at his apartment in Orlando, Florida regarding his connections to Tamerlan Tsarnaev and other extremists. Todashev attacked the agent with a knife and was killed in the ensuing shootout. The agent sustained minor injuries requiring stitches. The FBI dispatched a "post-shooting incident-review team" to Orlando.^[26]

Pinpointing the date and time of the murders

Questioning the date reported by officials, the relative said: "The three of them were definitely killed on Sept. 11.... They all stopped using their cellphones at about eight o'clock that night."^[1]

The last time anyone is known to have heard from the three victims was at 8:54 p.m. on September 11, 2011, when a call was placed by someone using Weissman's cell phone to Gerry's Italian Kitchen, a Watertown restaurant, for delivery of three dinner entrees.^[20] When a delivery woman arrived at 9:14 p.m. there was no answer at the door, and no one answered when the restaurant called Weissman's cell phone.^[20]

Police now believe the killings took place on or around September 11, the tenth anniversary of the 9/11 attacks, based on text messages.^[20]

Media coverage

For about a week after the murders the crime received extensive media attention across the region, but without further updates from police, media reports dried up.^[27] One year later, in September 2012, regional media again reported on the unsolved murders. In April 2013, when a possible connection to a Boston Marathon bombings suspect was made, the murders received extensive worldwide media coverage.

On 08/26/2013 I looked this information up on the internet.

<http://vault.fbi.gov/fbi%20Domestic%20Investigations%20and%20Operations%20Guide%20%28DIOG%29/fbi-domestic-investigations-and-operations-guide-diog-2011-version/fbi-domestic-investigations-and-operations-guide-diog-october-15-2011-part-03-of-03/view>

On July 7, 2013 I was provided with a compact disc by Mr. [REDACTED]. According to Mr. [REDACTED], the CD contained documents and images related to a deadly force encounter involving an FBI Field Agent which ultimately led to the shooting of Mr. [REDACTED] by the FBI Field Agent. The incident was reportedly witnessed by a second law enforcement officer. I have reviewed the content of the CD, as well as the related Medical Examiner's report, and would like to note the following:

- #1.) The CD does not contain a final report. There is no final summery narration to explain the efforts of the shoot review team and the investigator's findings.
- #2.) The CD does not contain the Medical Examiner's Report or photographs.

Tampa Field Office, Orlando Residence Agency
Shooting Incident Review
Executive Summary Update

(U//FOUO) On 04/21/2013, after the Boston Marathon bombing, the Tampa (TP) Field Office, Orlando Residence Agency (ORA) received an immediate lead regarding Ibragim Todashev, aka Todashev. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] TP ORA [REDACTED] and conducted interviews with him during which information indicating Todashev's possible involvement in a triple homicide in Waltham, Massachusetts on 09/11/2011 was obtained. Based on this information Boston (BS) Field Office SA [REDACTED], Massachusetts State Police (MSP) Troopers [REDACTED] and [REDACTED], and TP Task Force Officer (TFO) [REDACTED] planned to conduct an interview of Todashev in Orlando, Florida at Todashev's apartment. Todashev was a known Mixed Martial Arts fighter and had a prior history of assault which was known to TP, BS SA [REDACTED], and the MSP Troopers.

(U//FOUO) On 05/21/2013 the interview of Todashev was conducted by the LEOs and lasted approximately five hours from 7:30 p.m. to 12:00 a.m. At approximately 12:04 a.m. on 05/22/2013 Todashev attacked the investigators which resulted in his fatal shooting. Since that time the SIRT has worked closely with DOJ/Civil Rights to fully investigate the shooting. On 06/06/2013 the SIRT obtained audio and video recordings from the MSP that were conducted at the time of the interview. Three recording devices were used by the MSP at various times during the interview due to battery life. This resulted in a total of four video recordings with audio and one audio only recording. The recordings captured the majority of the interview and confession of Todashev, none captured the shooting incident. Florida is a two-party consent state with a law enforcement exception. Therefore, the MSP Troopers, as law enforcement officers, were within authority to record Todashev without his consent. DOJ/Civil Rights concurs with this analysis and reviewed the audio and video recordings.

(U//FOUO) Trooper [REDACTED] advised Todashev of his Miranda Rights, had him sign the Advice of Rights form, and proceeded with the interview. The Advice of Rights was captured on the recordings. The recordings also indicated Todashev's [REDACTED] participation in the triple homicide. Todashev stated [REDACTED] would only rob the victims of 40K in drug monies, he claimed he did not know the victims would be killed. Todashev stated he helped subdue the victims in their apartment, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] DOJ/Civil Rights indicated they do not intend to open a criminal investigation at this time but will continue to work with the SIRT on this matter.

(U//FOUO) On 06/13/2013 the SIRT re-interviewed MSP Troopers [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. No new substantive information was obtained. The Troopers indicated they did not mention the recordings in their initial interviews as they focused on the immediate circumstances surrounding the shooting.

AD Talking Points
TP/Orlando RA Shooting

(U//FOUO) An immediate action lead was sent from CTD/BS to TP on 04/21/2013 to interview Ibragim Todashev (aka Todashev), associate of Boston bombing subject Tamerlan Tsarnaev (deceased).

(U//FOUO) The same day, TP conducted an interview of Todashev; focused on Tsarnaev associations and timeline of when he was in Boston.

(U//FOUO) Todashev was compliant, provided fingerprints and DNA sample, claimed he knew Tsarnaev since 2008 and Tsarnaev progressively became more religious over time, Todashev also trained as a Mixed Martial Arts (MMA) fighter with Tsarnaev in Boston.

(U//FOUO) [REDACTED]

(U//FOUO) On [REDACTED] TP conducted a follow up interview of Todashev at the [REDACTED] Police Department. BS Agent and MSP Trooper were present to observe but did not participate in the interview. The interview was conducted by TP and focused on the Boston's timeline and Todashev's possible involvement in a BS area triple homicide. During the interview TP contacted INS regarding Todashev's girlfriend who was a visa-overstay. She was picked up at the police department by INS as Todashev was being interviewed. Todashev's girlfriend was detained and processed for deportation.

(U//FOUO) On 05/21/2013, TP secured another interview with Todashev, this time at his apartment in the evening. Present during the interview were BS Agent [REDACTED], MSP Troopers [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] and standing outside of the apartment for security purposes, was the TP TFO [REDACTED] Police Officer [REDACTED]

(U//FOUO) Purpose of the interview was to confront Todashev about his possible involvement in a triple homicide which occurred in the Waltham, MA area on 09/11/2011.

(U//FOUO) MSP and BS Agent were all from the [REDACTED] and were all aware of Todashev's violent history and MMA training.

(U//FOUO) Todashev had a plane ticket to leave for Chechnya on 05/23/2013. [REDACTED]

(U//FOUO) Points of interest:

(U//FOUO) In the SSS of MSP Trooper [REDACTED] he stated:

- Although we knew Todashev was dangerous, we felt this interview was necessary [REDACTED] and we had information [REDACTED] Todashev was leaving the country in a matter of days.
- As the questioning became centered on Todashev's presence in the Boston area during the time of the Waltham homicides and his involvement in the murders, his demeanor changed. Todashev smoked a cigarette, he repeatedly looked around the room, he became fidgety, and at times appeared to be stretching his legs and arms as he spoke.
- Todashev asked about smoking and said he needed more cigarettes even though there was nearly a full pack on the table in front of him. I opined he was attempting to get me to leave the room.
- On this trip to the bathroom I noticed Todashev was moving noticeably slow, almost methodical in his movements. When Todashev was returning down the stairs, I was more and more concerned that he might try to flee or attack us.
- I grabbed the sword from the wall and quickly stashed it in the kitchen to keep it from Todashev's reach. Although Todashev was still on the stairs, I believe he saw me hide the sword in the kitchen due to a large mirror positioned at the bottom of the stairway.
- Due to Todashev's continued erratic behavior, I sent a text message to SA [REDACTED] and Trooper [REDACTED] which read: "Be on guard. He is in vulnerable position to do something bad. Be on guard now. I see him looking around at times." (See photograph of text message.)
- As I was looking at my phone, I heard a roaring noise, looked up and saw the table between Todashev and SA [REDACTED] rise up and fly toward SA [REDACTED].
- Todashev ran from the bed toward the door near the kitchen area and began quickly scanning left to right as if looking for something.
- As Todashev reached the door he grabbed a red, approximately five-foot pole that was leaning against the wall near the door. Todashev moved incredibly quickly, almost like something in a movie.
- As he grabbed the pole, Todashev turned quickly toward me and raised the pole above his head with both hands, which appeared to be a trained fighting position, and charged toward me as if he was going to impale me with the pole.
- I then heard shots fired off to my right and saw Todashev make two movements which indicated to me he had been impacted by the shots.
- Todashev fell to his hands and knees in front of me and then, almost immediately, he sprang forward, coming up in a fighting stance.
- I heard more shots and Todashev fell to the ground again, this time apparently incapacitated.

- I was handed a rubber medical glove and I checked Todashev for a carotid and ulnar pulse and was unable to locate one at either location.
- Todashev had several opportunities to escape during the altercation, but instead chose to obtain a weapon and attack.
- Todashev's actions placed me in fear of imminent physical injury or even death. I am certain SA [REDACTED]'s actions saved me from serious physical injury or death.

(U//FOUO) In the SSS of BS FBI Agent [REDACTED] he stated:

- The TFO's and I were instructed to travel back to the ORA in order to interview Todashev regarding the triple homicide.
- He was calm and respectful and led us to his apartment.
- I felt that Todashev's stress level was very high, and that the possibility for him to react in a physical way was increased.
- Todashev also started twitching and looked very uncomfortable. Todashev signed a Miranda waiver form at the point we felt he made enough statements to incriminate himself. At the end of the questioning Trooper [REDACTED] asked Todashev to write his statement down and he agreed to do so.
- It should be noted that on each prior trip to the bathroom, which was located at the top of the stairs, it created a heightened sense of awareness for our safety. On this last trip to the bathroom, Todashev urinated only one quick burst, which led me to question whether he had to really go to the bathroom at all. Trooper [REDACTED] and I made eye contact and gestured to one another that we need to be well aware of the threat Todashev posed in this position.
- I was reading my notepad when I heard a loud noise and suddenly felt a blow to the back of my head. I was knocked partially off my chair, but I caught myself.
- I saw Todashev running past me and I tried to grab him. I removed my weapon from the holster and aimed the gun at Todashev who had run towards the kitchen. I shouted "show me your hands!"
- I continuously yelled for Todashev to show me his hands, but he did not comply.
- I heard the sound of metal banging together like knives in a very hurried fashion. I believed Todashev was trying to retrieve a weapon, and he was successful in doing so.
- Todashev instantly ran at full speed from the kitchen directly towards me and Trooper [REDACTED]
- I saw Todashev's left shoulder drop as he rounded the corner from the kitchen to the living room. It was obvious to me Todashev was in an attacking posture.
- In the split second available to me to assess the threat posed by Todashev's wholly non-compliant actions, I was in fear for my life and the life of Trooper [REDACTED].
- There was no doubt in my mind Todashev intended to kill both of us. In order to stop the threat, I shot Todashev three to four times. Todashev fell backwards, but did not go the ground. He then re-established his footing and suddenly lunged again towards us. I then shot him three or four more times in order to stop his continuing deadly threat.

- Trooper [REDACTED] checked Todashev for a pulse, but could not locate one. TFO [REDACTED] called 911 for medical assistance.
